

Superior Court of California
County of Riverside

PUBLIC NOTICE

In accordance with California Rule of Court 2.507(b)(3), registers of action must contain the following information:

- (A) Date case commenced;
- (B) Case number;
- (C) Case type;
- (D) Case title (unless confidential by law);
- (E) Party names (unless confidential by law);
- (F) Party type;
- (G) Date of each activity; and
- (H) Description of each activity.

Registers of actions are meant to be a summary of proceedings, such as the filing of a motion or the entry of an order. The registers of actions should not contain information beyond the scope of a proceeding, such as minutes, the text of orders, or the contents of papers filed with the court.

Over the next several months, the Riverside Superior Court will be making modifications to its registers of action.
